

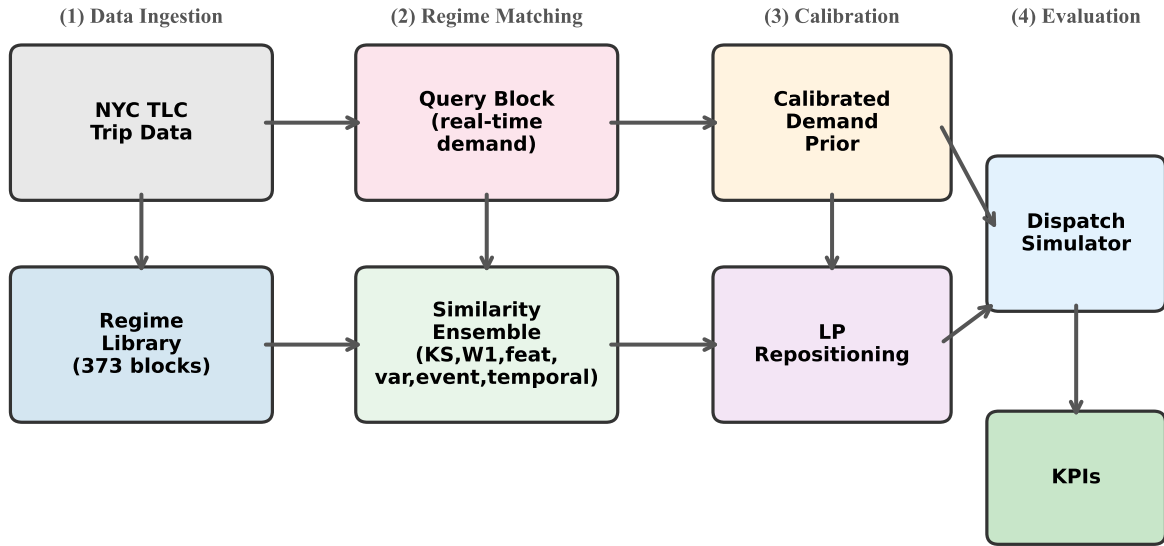

Figure 1: System architecture. Historical TLC data is segmented into regimes; a similarity ensemble matches the current query block to historical analogues; the calibrated prior drives both LP repositioning and demand-aware dispatch.